The Lewis Circuit Court is in session.

DOLL shoes and slippers in colors, at Miner's. dtf

FANCY raisins, currants, citron and figs—Calhoun's.

LARGE companies, prompt settlements—John Duley's agency.

The December term of the Mason Quarterly Court has been in session this week.

REMEMBER John Duley, agent, insures tobacco barns, tobacco and all kinds of country property. tf

J. C. SHUMAKER has been elected cashier of Citizens' National Bank of Ripley, vice A. B. Morrison resigned.

SHERIFF ALEXANDER and his deputies have returned to the County Court their delinquent list for the year 1889.

The License Committee of the City Council of Frankfort has recommended a tax of $1,000 upon the sale of cigarettes in that city.

The sum of $21,000 has been subscribed at Paris for the purpose of erecting a new opera house. The charter calls for not less than $25,000.

MR. FRANK L. KERR, of Jersey Ridge, and Miss Lucinda Slack will be married to-day at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Jacob Slack.

THINK of it. The sum of $10,363 will be paid in dividends January 4th, 1890, by the Mason County Building Association. Have you any stock?

The Maysville Assembly will entertain at the St. Charles Hotel Friday evening, Dec. 27th. Music by Professor Venie's Orchestra. Annual Xmas greeting.

REV. H. A. M. HENDERSON, once Superintendent of Public Instruction of this State, now of Cincinnati, is a relative of the late Jefferson Davis, by marriage.

The most permanent Christmas present would be a life-sized portrait of your father, mother, son or daughter. Kackley's life-sized portraits are just the thing. dtf

The goose bone says we are to have a severe period of weather beginning about the 15th, when a very low temperature will prevail until the 22nd. Christmas will be clear and bright.

The largest and handsomest line of Holiday Slippers in Embroidered Plush, Ooze Calf, Alligator, Kid, Goat and Patent Leather ever seen in Maysville, now on exhibition at Miner's Shoe Store. tf

The Melville Dramatic Company will play "Joshua Whitcomb" at the opera house to-night. A silk hat will be given to the homeliest man present and a handsome mirror to the prettiest woman.

I AM closing out my fall stock of millinery and notions at exceedingly low prices. Hats from 25 cents to $1, wings and fancy trimmings at cost. Call and be convinced. Doll hats and bonnets. M. ARCHDEACON.

CAPTAIN C. W. BOYD has bought the Levana mill property for $3,466.64, and the Ripley Bee says he will erect at once a new saw mill and start things going again as in old times. He expects to have the saw-dust flying within ninety days.

The ladies of Lewisburg will give an entertainment December 28th for the benefit of the Baptist Church of that place. "A Visit to Santa Claus' Home" will be rendered. Good talent has been secured and good music will be furnished. Admission, 25 cents; children 15 cents.

MR. BEN TUTHILL, business manager of the California Opera Company, was in town yesterday making arrangements for the appearance of this excellent troupe here next Wednesday night. They make but two stops between Richmond, Va., and Maysville, and go direct from here to Indianapolis.

Notice.

The parties who d-faced the bills on the bill board at Bridge street are known. If any further damage is done at that place the parents of those offending will be held responsible. It

A Call on the People of Maysville.
Our stock of holiday goods is simply enormous—store crowded from garret to cellar, sidewalk blocked. We must have breathing room, so we ask the assistance of the good people of Maysville and vicinity to help us out of this dilemma. If you will only call we have no fear of your good judgment of prices.

123dt ANNA M. FRAZAR.

Barn Burned.

Wm. H. Robb's large tobacco barn, near Helena, was burned to the ground last night, together with its contents consisting of about 18,000 pounds of tobacco and a lot of farming implements. Origin of fire unknown.

The loss is nearly $4,000—about $3,000 on the contents and $900 on the building. The only insurance is $300 on the barn in the Farmers' Home Mutual of this county.

The Bedford Will Case.

Messrs. Wall & Worthington left on this morning's train for Vanceburg to attend the Bedford will case, pending in the Lewis Circuit Court. They are attorneys for the State, and represent the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Mrs. Bedford, mother of the late Robt. Bedford, having willed her property to the State for the benefit of the common schools. The Bedinger heirs are contesting, and are represented by Ross & Owens, Thomas Kennedy and Hanson Kennedy, of Carlisle, and Wadsworth & Son.

River Items.

The Andes from Wheeling is due down to-night and the Telegraph for Pomeroy and Rainbow for Pittsburg are due up.

The St. Lawrence will return to her old trade here soon, it is promised. The Bonanza will probably be put in the Pomeroy trade in place of the Big Sandy. —Ripley Bee.

On her last down trip from Pittsburg to New Orleans the big towboat Joe B. Williams handled 59 barges of coal—45,430 tons. Including the time lost in making up these tows and their delivery, and time lost on account of the weather and fog, she was twenty-two days out from Pittsburg, a distance of 2,000 miles.

Railroad Items.

The C. and O. has been enjoying an unusually heavy freight traffic the past week or so.

The Louisville and Nashville road handled 1,204 more loaded cars at Cincinnati Station in November, 1889, than during the same month of last year. Of this increase 571 were south-bound and 633 north-bound cars.

The output of locomotives at the Baldwin works in Philadelphia, during October, was 104. Orders in hand warrant the assumption that their output during the coming year will be considerably over 1,000 locomotives.

Of the eight locomotives which were wrecked in the Conemaugh and Johnstown flood, seven have been rebuilt at the Altoona shops, and are again in service. One of the number was so badly used up that it was sent to the scrap heap.

Brakeman on the Erie are now required to pay $1 each for the lanterns used by them in the company's service. The explanation offered by the company for this exaction is the necessity for causing the men to be more careful with the lanterns.

"Said Pasha."

Lovers of comic opera have a rare treat in store next week. On the night of December 18th, "Said Pasha" will be produced at the opera house by the California Opera Company that had a run of two weeks last September at Heuck's, one of the leading opera houses in Cincinnati. In its issue of September 17th, the Enquirer says:

"Said Pasha" is almost an ideal comic opera. It is one of the prettiest and most amusing creations ever seen in this city, and the company presenting it could hardly be improved upon. The comedy is laughable, and possesses the rare charm of originality, while the situations follow one upon the other with a naturalness and unique humor which fairly captivated the large audience that witnessed the first performance of "Said Pasha" in this city at Heuck's last night. Few comic operas contain more delightful melodies. The most exuberantly funny by-plays and contrivances are made on the word "why," and the ingenuity and skill of the librettist deserves the highest praise. It is rarely that a comic opera is accorded the enthusiastic favor bestowed upon the presentation of "Said Pasha." The opera is the product of American genius, both in dialogue and plot, and was first produced in California where it had a remarkable run. The plot is simple but pleasing, and enables the participants to introduce not only lovely music and laughable dialogue, but some charming scenery and brilliant costumes. It was an unusual compliment that every solo number and chorus should receive an encore, and some of the most catchy songs aroused such a furore that the singers were drowned with three or four recalls.

Secure reserved seats tickets at once, as there promises to be a big demand for them. For rates of admission see advertisement in this issue.

THOUGHTS

«SUGGESTED BY A GLANCE AT THE SHOW WINDOW OF MINER & BRO.»

'Twas the week before Christmas, when all through the town
The people were walking the streets up and down;
They elbowed and jostled each other like mad,
In spending for Christmas all the money they had.

And I in my Arctic, for the weather was damp,
Was shod and equipped for a long winter's tramp,
When over the way there arose such a clatter,
I crossed very quick to see what was the matter.

Away through the mud I flew like a flash,
To MINER & BROTHER'S we all made a dash;
The front was blocked up by a very great crowd,
Who expressed much delight in terms quick and loud.

And then in the window to my eyes did appear
A pile of Plush Bags for happy New Year;
With appropriate signs so lovely and neat,
I knew in a moment what excited the street.

Of beautiful colors harmoniously blended,
The tints and the hues seems quite unended;
Of purple, of garnet, of blue and carnelian,
Of yellow, of orange, of green and vermillion.

From top to the bottom a brilliant display
Of "Colchester" Rubbers in gorgeous array;
Unlined, "pure gum," with sizes on tags,
All packed for the Holidays in little plush bags.

The Shoes were well fitting, and light on the feet,
And never would slip off while crossing the street;
The shape—oh! how stylish! the stock, how elastic!
To walk seemed like dancing the light and fantastic.

I spoke not a word, but went straightway to work;
Bought several nice pairs and paid the smart clerk;
And exclaimed to myself, as I passed out of sight,
"They are just what I want, and the price is all right."
